Synopsis

For home-based family child care (daycare) providers, taking care of the children is only half of the job. The other half is taking care of the businessÃ¢â ¬â •tracking expenses, being profitable, filing taxes, and meeting government requirements. This resource covers everything family child care providers need to keep accurate business records. If a family child care provider pays close attention to the recommendations in this book, he or she will be able to claim the maximum allowable deductions and pay the lowest possible federal taxes.Since the previous edition of Family Child Care Record-Keeping Guide, Congress and the IRS have made many changes to tax rules that affect family child care providers. There have been changes in depreciation rules, adjustments to food and mileage rates, and clarifications on how to calculate the Time-Space percentage. Author Tom Copeland has been involved in many IRS audits and represented providers in several Tax Court cases that have also clarified numerous rules. Further necessitating this ninth edition, the IRS issued two significant new rules in 2013. These updates, new rules, and clarifications are detailed in this book; all of the information is applicable to child care providers in every state, regardless of local regulations.Tom Copeland, JD, is a writer, trainer, lawyer, and consultant focusing on family child care business issues. He has conducted record-keeping, tax preparation, and business workshops for family child care providers across the country since 1981.

Tom Copeland, JD: Tom Copeland, JD, has written many books on business issues for the family child care field and trains thousands of providers around the country each year. He is a consultant for the National Association for Family Child Care and other national and state child care organizations.

Lots of great tips for tax savings. It was very helpful for my wife's family child day care tax savings, especially the part where author has explained on the use of regular business use of the home space Vs exclusive business use of the home space.

A wealth of information and great advice to get the correct info for taxes!

Every Home Daycare Could Use This!!!! So Happy I Bought It

Fabulous book. After fully implementing Tom Copeland's record-keeping recommendations my taxes are far less than I had anticipated. Well worth the (deductible!) dollars I paid for it.

This book is necessary for any child care provider! So helpful!

This is so handy, I wish I had it for my prior tax year. It does a great job not only explaining write offs, but also clarifies when the write off is appropriate.

I bought this for my daughter whom is starting a home daycare and she found this to be very helpful.

First year doing taxes for my home daycare, this book is amazing. Combined with Tom Copeland 2015 tax book I had everything I needed.
