Erica Glasener is a horticulturist, author, lecturer, and award-winning host of HGTV's A Gardener's Diary for fourteen years. As host of this popular TV show, Erica introduced her audience to gardeners, horticulture professionals, specialty plant growers, landscape architects, and more from across the country. In 2011, she received a Garden Media Award from the Perennial Plant Association for her promotion of perennials through writing and lectures. Currently Erica provides online content for the Southern Living Plant Collection and for Fiskars, where she is a garden expert. She also writes a bimonthly blog for Gibbs Gardens, located in Ball Ground, Georgia. Erica is the original co-author of the Georgia Getting Started Garden Guide (Cool Springs Press).

A fantastic book that apparently covers every plant that grows in Georgia. So far it's been very useful and enlightening, especially since I just moved here from the North. Illustrations on every page. Highly recommended.

Lots of great information on different plants that grow in Georgia. Highly recommend for all Georgia gardeners, weather a beginner of a seasoned veteran, to use as a good reference guide.

Concise!

great book. describes flowers and shrubs in Georgia.

Pretty good book but was missing Leyland Cypress which is really common in our area. I would buy it again for a friend.

Great book. Lots of information. Quick ship and in excellent condition.

This is a good informative book, for anyone in the southeast. I only wish her show was still on television.

I love this book. I wish all subsections were together by within the month heading and not broken up.
