Customer Reviews

Mark P. Block is a dealer in contemporary handmade studio art glass, a collector, and a graphic designer. He wrote this book in cooperation with the Marble Collectors Society of America.

Marbles need to be seen to be appreciated and in this book you get a nice sampling of some great work by some of the great pioneers of glass. It also give you a nice insight into the history of the contemporary marble and transistion to the torchworked marble. It would be nice to have a revised current edition of this work the only problem would be the book would probably weigh about 90lbs.

with all the terrific talent that has emerged over the past few years.

Great book. Well written.
