Synopsis

Not every couple has a bottomless bank account to pay for their wedding. Filled with 20 financial- and time-budgeting worksheets, this book is a must-have for DIY brides-to-be who want to make the biggest day of their lives as memorable as possible - without breaking the bank. "The Everything Weddings on a Budget Book, 2nd Edition" offers creative ideas for: finding affordable wedding consultants or planning it all yourself; making homemade invitations, thank-you notes, and even the wedding cake!; saving money on catering bills for a delicious reception dinner; cutting costs and finding bargains on wardrobe and travel; creating beautiful, cost-effective floral arrangements and centrepieces; saving time and money on music, transportation, and the photographer; and, having an unforgettable honeymoon-one that newly weds can afford.From determining (and sticking to) a budget to personalising the wedding ceremony with DIY ideas and saving money on the bridal party’s wardrobe, "The Everything Weddings on a Budget 2nd Edition" shows readers how to have the wedding of their dreams- on a budget!

Barbara Cameron (Edgewater, FL) is a freelance writer and the author of The Everything Weddings on a Budget, 1st Edition. She is also a contributor to The "I Have a Life" Bride’s Guide, and several of her fiction stories were made into HBO/Cinemax movies. She has helped plan many weddings for friends and family using a variety of budgets.

The best thing about this book was that it followed three couples with 3 different budget ranges (modest, moderate and luxurious) through some of their wedding planning descions. Other than that, there were no new tips, advice or ideas mentioned anywhere in this book that those of us who have read a couple of buget books, done a google search and read a magazine article or 2 have not already learned for ourselves. Bridal bargains was way better, more creative, detailed and had ideas that many people have never heard or thought of. This book didn't contain a single new idea or give any substantial assistance in planning a wedding on a small, moderate or large budget.

perfect for planning my wedding, although it you are doing a destination wedding like I did, there isn't much in here.arrived on time and in great condition.

Definitely recommend this book to anyone planning a wedding on a budget. It's a small book which makes it easy to travel. Quick read, lots of great tips and planning tools.

Very pleased with item

Great book. Very easy to understand. Written in order sequence of when you need to get things done.

I'm helping a friend plan a wedding, and I also have my own future wedding in mind. I've been reading a couple of different books, but this was the first one that I thought would help with money saving tips. I think that this book was too general, and didn't quite give enough specific examples on how to save money. I also didn't like the examples of the different couples and their budget levels, I think that was pretty corny.
