Joan Holub is the author and/or illustrator of many books for children. She lives in North Carolina, where the famous groundhog Sir Walter Wally helps watch the weather at the Museum of Natural Sciences. You can visit Joan at www.joanholub.com.

Great book on Van Gogh as teach tool.

I would give this 10 stars if I could. You would be doing yourself and your children a favor by purchasing this! I learned more than what I thought I knew, and my 8 year old ate it up. I love that this book can connect with adults and children alike. A must buy for anyone wanting to expand their children's knowledge of an incredible painter!

I wanted something to spark my 6YO son's interest in art. This book sure did. He asked me to read it to him a 2nd time right on the spot. He also spotted a Van Gogh print that I brought home. This is a fine series. I also got the Degas which wasn't quite as interesting but he still liked it. I just ordered Picasso and a few others. Get the Van Gogh and if your child loves it, try some of the others. (I also liked that this mentioned Van Gogh was very depressed once at loving a woman who didn't love him back.)

Cute book for Kids

Fun and aimed at children. Represents Vincent's work well.

My nine year old granddaughter's favorite arts at this time is Vincent Van Gogh, and this book helped her to learn more about him and his art. The Seller did a good job describing the condition of the book, and got it here in a timely fashion.

Nice story for various ages. The kids really liked the story and the pictures were well done.

Exactly as described,very happy!
