Customer Reviews

I just received my copy today and will be making Wok Chicken tonight. The Hong Kong House was never just a restaurant - it was a home away from home for so many of us Tate street denizens.When I was totally broke, I could still afford a big bowl of brown rice with gravy and sesame seeds there and be happy as a clam. The sprout sandwich is something I still make, and I still try to recreate the shrimp chow mein to this day. Such warm memories! Amelia would sometimes walk over to the Record Exchange with "extra" food. One time I remember that she "accidentally" made an entire pitcher of jasmine tea. And she "found" a bag of rice that she knew she hadn’t ordered - and would I want it? :) The food there was always made with love and so is this book. Thank you Karen for bringing this to us all - and thank you to Amelia and Robert for all the love - and for all the amazing food. There will never be another place like HKH. But this book will help us bring a little HKH back into our homes.

I just received my copies of the Hong Kong House Cookbook! Wow! Thank you, thank you, thank you! It's GREAT! I've been taken back in time to Tate Street, now I'll have to get busy cooking up some of these old favorite recipes!Update: we cooked the Wok Chicken last night! Yum, yum!

This is a great cookbook. Very interesting recipes and includes some information about the restaurant and Amelia, the owner and chef. Tried the lentil burger last evening and it is great. Be sure to cook most of the water out of the lentils and veggies so it will bind better. Healthy and taste fantastic. These are original recipes that everyone should try if you get tired of eating the same ol' thing all the time.

Best recipes of a legendary chef and diner owner, who has many followers still, well after her retirement. She will always be well loved by the community she served. She is one of a kind and a fantastic cook.

This book is great! I knew I wanted it for the memories of hospitality, kindness and excellent food at Hong Kong House. But there are also great recipes, and buying guides for the less common ingredients. Tomorrow I will make Amelia's Famous Noodles Soup, and the garlic sauce accompaniment. I recommend this to anyone who cooks for the info, but it's also the unofficial yearbook for Tate St. folks from the era of Hong Kong House, I think.

We've been waiting for this a long time, back when HKH was very much up and running. The recipes and dishes are great, but they aren't the same without the ambiance of the restaurant and the love and care that Amelia and the crew put into everything.

As a former patron of Hong Kong House, I loved reading the stories, the pictures and recipes. Great job.
