Classic on Decoys with 140 Illustrations

It’s a good history but, yes it’s dated and nearly all images are black & white. That means unless you are more interested in the history than the imagery, you’ll likely be disappointed. I read these facts in the other reviews before buying so was not surprised nor disappointed. I am quite satisfied with it.The book’s quality is satisfactory for a trade paperback.

Wonderful book!!

Excellent Book.Worth every penny for the serious decoy collector.

As advertised. No problems.

the bible for decoy collecting

He loves decoy and got an antique one for Christmas. He requested this book, so he is pleased.

Great gift!

I’m a decoy carver and collector and found this book last year at a decoy shop payed way more so this a good deal I have a few decoys from some of the people in this book it’s real detailed it mentioned knotts island n.c./v.a. where I grew up and learned how to carve so this book sparked my interest good I recommend this book yo any collector or someone interested in folk art it has great pics of some rare works of at
