Presidential transportation from early horse and carriage days to modern times is revealed in a well-detailed survey of how U. S. presidents have spent their time in Washington. Auto buffs and presidential trivia collectors will relish this unusual survey, which includes plenty of black and white photos. -- Midwest Book Review

I didn’t read the book myself. It was a gift for my son, and he thought it was great. Lots of history and detail.

Well, at least 1 other enthusiast has read this book. Probably will not make Oprah’s book list or NYT, either. If you like lots of black and white photos dealing with the cars driven by or ridden in by US Presidents for the last 100 years or so, this book is for you. Plenty of Lincolns, the cars, a few Fords, the Checker cab ridden in by Oswald, LBJ’s Amphicar and even a Fiat! See it at a garage sale or in the bookstore in the bottom of your public library, buy it! We took a chance w a buck. I certainly got my money’s worth. Doctor Zhivago, it isn’t, but I have read worse. Ike had an electric. I have a Volt. FDR loved cars and driving fast. I love FDR. Nixon bought Brezhnev a 73 Lincoln. We have seen the JFK limo at the Ford Museum in Dearborn. Fun facts that, w $1.75, might even get you a cup of coffee. Will it change your life? I hope not, but there are worse ways to spend a few hours. Twilight, anyone?

For presidential transportation/presidency-trivia buffs, this book is great. It’s chocked full of interesting/unique/rare photos and researched in amazing detail. I couldn’t put it down. What a clever idea for a book!
