Of course this book is dated. It is a good run through of all the Major villages and Houses important at the time. Big Pictures in color. It really gets in depth, talking about specific producers, exceptional sites and vintages and even has actual wine label of recommended wines from the area you are reading about(though this is only good as a curiosity at this point). Basically this is great book to have on the coffee table(due to its large size and picks) or to delve into styles of wine and histories of Alsatian castles, Loire Chateaus and Old Established Champagne Houses.
