Major and Mrs Holt founded the first organisation to offer battlefield tours to the general public in the late 1970s. Since the 1990s they have been writing their series of guide books, incorporating all that they have learned from their experiences conducting thousands of people around battlefields. This series, designed to serve as companions for travellers, whether sitting at home or physically visiting the battlefields, includes detailed travel directions, military history, fascinating anecdotes and tourist information. The Holts share the writing of their books equally and conduct all their own research, spending many weeks on the ground as they prepare each new book or update previously published titles.

Great little guide to get u planning for a Normandy trip. The way it is organize is good since it gives u by day on how to travel the different routes and beaches. Also the different museum to visit

You can get better and more information on websites. This is a good guide for someone that just showed up in Normandy and wanted to understand what D-Day was about.

As their other battlefield guides, this Major and Mrs. Holt's guide to Normandy is excellent. I also highly recommend their Gallipoli Battlefield Guide.

Very helpful with my planning and great suggestions. It will come in helpful when we go on our trip. Thank you
