Synopsis

Cooking with Glo is a return to a dab and a pinch, a dollop and a sprinkle. This is cooking learned at a motherÃ¢â ¬â„¢s apron strings; and her mother from her mother. McNeill believes that healthy cooking is social, convivial and accessible, and the recipes contained here are dispensed with a charm, wit and the sage wisdom pulled from a full life. She really is the Mrs. Beeton for our times.

Customer Reviews

Ã¢â ¬Å“If anyone understands the extent to which recipes can be treasures, it's Glo.Ã¢â ¬Â• Ã Â Ã¢â ¬â •Laura Calder, host, French Food at Home on Food Network Canada, and author, French Taste: Elegant, Everyday Eating

At the age of 82, Glo McNeill won the television program Recipe to Riches grand prize of $250,000 and had her Luscious Lemon Pudding sold throughout Canada. Canada not only fell in love with McNeillÃ¢â ¬â„¢s Luscious Lemon Pudding, they fell in love with McNeill. In an era of haute cuisine, McNeill was a throwback.

This is a great cookbook, with something for everyone, young, old, novice or experienced. The recipes are very practical and include useful hints and tips. Terrific that Glo can share the benefit of her decades of experience in the kitchen. Recipes are included for all occasions. A very good buy.
