most of these questions were so dumb I think the person asking was "trolling", as the kids say. sort of funny, and sort of dumb I guess. I don’t know, I wasn’t into it, but maybe I don’t have a sense of humor. or at least not the right one...

I thought this would be cute recollections of actual questions asked, such as a patient asking a doctor a dumb question, or just about anything Jessica Simpson says. But it was more like a bad collection of old, amateur jokes. Don’t waste your hard drive space, or the time it takes to download it.

I downloaded this book because of all the bad reviews. It was not as bad as I had expected so in that sense it was a disappointment.

this book was not as funny as I wanted.

Dry humor written by Sidney. Some of the questions tickled my funny bone. It is a good short read, that people at or may not like. Its entertainment kind of reading, that might help brighten up a depressing blue day.

It was a very good book.....covered most of the dumb questions I've ever heard....keep on rocking.....but I'll bet there is some young pup out there thinking up New ones even as we speak....so should we say this is a darn good startÃƒÂ Ã Å¸Ã Â•Ã Â ÃƒÂ Ã Å¸Ã Å'Ã Ë†

I think it good news create miss point hot this this town of time touch according to the way it was good to heAr

This "book" (and I use that term very loosely) is a joke. The entire text consist of "Chapter" headings that are stupid/silly questions. That's it- no material to go with these idiotic lists, just the questions themselves. I see the "Author" (and I also use that term very loosely) has a whole library of the same type of crap in the credits. I certainly hope he doesn't consider himself an author or comedian, no one else will. I got this "book/list" for free, and I still feel robbed.
