Synopsis

The only thing bigger than Carrie Hope Fletcher’s hair is her heart. Eternally upbeat, this 22-year-old dynamo has sung her way to fame, both as Eponine in the London cast of Les Mis and on her wildly popular YouTube channel, It’s Way Past My Bedtime. But here’s her not-so-secret: This rising star was once a high school misfit. Carrie’s youthful fans come to YouTube to hear her talk music, books, and whatever comes to mind! But when they write to her, they want advice most of all. In All I Know Now, Carrie tackles every tough topic, from how to apologize ("Don’t make excuses, but do explain.") to how to handle bullies ("Punch them in the face. Kidding! Kidding!") Carrie grew up just one step ahead of her teen and tween fans. She can remember her own awkward phase (all too well!), so she never lectures her audience; she confides in them. Thanks to Carrie’s personal touch, this generous guide to growing up is as one-of-a-kind as its author!

Customer Reviews

Definitely would recommend to younger girls and teens! But as a sophomore in college, I found that the material was a little beneath me. I kind of knew when I ordered the book, but being a longtime Carrie fan I just had to see what she came up with. Not to say that it doesn’t contain many nuggets of wisdom. But I’m at the age where I’ve already come to accept many of the principles Carrie describes so it didn’t feel as poignant. Although I did find myself nodding in agreement and totally laughing out loud at certain points, so I’m pleased. Also, I love the design of this book. Super cute :)

This is a book that everyone should read : teens, young adults, everyone.Carrie makes life seem elegant and beautiful with her bright and optimistic outlook.

Great find... Perfect!

It was a birthday gift for my niece. She wanted the European edition. I couldn't believe it but I found it on and it was ship from London and arrived just in time for her birthday. She very happy and surprise I actually found the book. So that makes me a great uncle forever.

Carrie is such a sweetheart. She gave such great advice and her writing makes it feel like she's actually talking to you. Highly recommended for young and old.

I could have used this as a teen but in my late twenties I found myself skimming quite a bit. I love her YouTube channel but this isn't the book for me.

Amazing! It came in earlier than expected and the book itself is so relatable, anyone I think would fall in love with it the way I did.

Carrie Hope Fletcher!!!!!! This book is great and she is such a talented writer!!
