Customer Reviews

I am a visual and audio learner. This book provides both. Unfortunately I did not consistently work through the materials. One must do that to really succeed in learning a language--then go out and talk.

I ordered this and Behind the Wheel Spanish for my husband for Christmas. Imagine our surprise when we found out that these two items are IDENTICAL, except for the titles. Even though the prices are different! Conversational Spanish even costs more, leading you to believe the products are different. So be careful. And while the lessons are useful, the format is the same as those of taped lessons - all they did was copy the tapes to CD's, so the instructions to rewind and play the sentance again don't work. Also, there are long silences where the tapes wind to the end.

This is a good book.

Easy to use -- have found a couple of errors in English-to-Spanish words, but no big deal. It is somewhat difficult to use the book in conjunction w/ the recording, because the book has no real format. Took me a while to realize the "almost verbatim" words on the tape are where an index usually is. Otherwise -- pretty decent method of learning to converse!

I bought this CD set to further my spanish, however when I recieved the CD's and played them I came to a horrifying realization! These CD's are exactly the same as Behind the Wheel Spanish (by the same author) only with a different name stamped on the box!!!! Buyers beware! If you own Behind the Wheel Spanish don't buy this or vice versa! Behind the wheel spanish is really good but this whole experience makes me cautious ... !

i was disappointed by this course.i am slightly beyond a beginner, that is, i am trying to learn conversational spanish, tenses, pronouns, verb conjugation etc.this course will teach you very little of this. just very basic sentences. it makes the unbelievable assertion that verb conjugation is not necessary. i find that verb conjugation is essential for any meaningful conversation. also necessary are tenses, which are not covered in any detail.the accompanying booklet is better than the tapes, but i did not buy the course to get a book.someone who is completely new to spanish may find this course useful.for others it may be too basic.

Well, if anything will teach you Spanish, this is the thing to do it. You still have to associate with others, to get the correct lingo for the geographic location however.

I really didn't even use the cd's for two weeks, just the book and it's been marvelous. My boyfriend is Hispanic and I felt the need to be able to at least recognize a few words of Spanish. Once I started to use the cd's everything came so quickly. Como se dice FANTASTIC in espanol!!!!
