Great book!! Awesome cute animals and easy for a newbie to the adult coloring scene!!Love all Jade's books!

This is a cute coloring book of 25 cute animals designs. There are 50 pages to color as you are provided with two copies of each design. The designs are detailed but not overly intricate. While a few spots have areas that might be difficult for crayons to color, all other nib sizes should be used with ease. I especially like the zebra and the panda but all 25 designs are adorable.While you can have access to .PDFs when you purchase this book, my review is based on the book as it is received from . That way you will know what the pages look like and how they accept color. I like that the publisher provides the digital version as well so you can choose the paper you wish to use and/or to color the pictures as many times as you choose.This is what I found while coloring in this book and testing the paper with my coloring medium:25 x 2 each Chibi Animal Designs for a total of 50 coloring pagesDesigns are printed on one side of the pagePaper is typical of CreateSpace: white, thin, slightly rough and non-perforated. The back of the page is printed black.The designs do not merge into the binding. There is a heavy framing line at the outer edges of the design to give the project a more finished look, especially for framing.Glue Binding (there is room to cut the pages out if you choose to do so.)Though you cannot see the bleed-through easily due to the back of the page being printed in black, I recommend the use of a blotter page when working in this book. I use a page of card stock or several sheets of heavyweight paper under my working page. It keeps seeping ink and marring dents from ruining the pages below.Alcohol-based markers bleed through the page quickly.Water-based markers bleed through in spots.Gel pens and India ink pens leave shadows on back of the page. India ink can bleed through if you apply heavily or multiple coats.Coloring Pencils work well with this paper. I found that I could layers the same color for deeper pigment or multiple colors and I could blend easily using a blending stick. I tested both oil and wax based pencils. I also found that hard lead pencils leave dents through the paper.

I have been coloring for over a year now. I have Multiple Sclerosis and coloring helps me to relax, lifts me up out of times of depression, and helps me to focus on something else outside of myself when I’m in pain. I enjoy a wide variety of coloring books, especially animals and fantasy themed coloring books. I’m also a big fan of the smaller, portable sized coloring books. I’ve put together a small kit that I can easily throw in my purse, and take it with me to doctor appointments, etc.I have days when it’s difficult to smile and I don’t want to get my coloring stuff out. Today has been one of those days. I’ve been out of one of the medications that really improves my quality of life. It helps with depresion, anxiety, back pain, fibromyalgia, and more. My doctor is retiring and can’t prescribe medicine if she isn’t in her practice. I decided to try and do a coloring book review for one of my very favorite coloring book artists. The first illustration from Chibi Animals: An Adult Coloring Book with Adorable Cartoon Animals, Cute Nature Scenes, and Relaxing Patterns for Stress Relief was some of the best medicine that I could have taken today. The first picture looked like a baby leopard wearing a very dashing bow around his neck and big, beautiful eyes. Next came a monkey with 2 bananas and a striped baby tiger setting off on a great adventure. I tried coloring, but my hands weren't cooperating with me today. I switched to markers and colored enough to dissapate my anger and frustration and was able to take a nap.This is definitely a 5 star adult coloring book and it was a pleasure to do this review.

This is the cutest adult coloring book, but beware you get two of every picture. So your really getting 25 picture times two. Also there is only 50 pages, not 106 pages listed under the product details.

I love this book & so glad I purchased it. The different big eye animals are so adorable. There are two pages of each picture. Makes it fun to share or color them both yourself. I also love that the pages are one sided. I really enjoy all of Jade Summere's coloring books. She is an awesome artist, with a wide variety of different themed books for everyone. I defiantly recommend Chibi Animals coloring book. . I loved it so much I just purchased a second to give to my mom who also loves to color.

I bought this for my 12 year old daughter and she really likes it. The pictures are very cute and very detailed, but not with the incredibly minute details that are really hard to color. It's bound nicely (no tear out pages). The black on the edges and the back of each sheet make it fun and different. My only complaint would be that midway through the pictures start over. Not a huge issue, but when you buy a coloring book you expect each page to be a new picture.

Adorable big eyes! They all look so cute. I love the totally black page on the back of each coloring page. Alcohol markers don't bleed to back black side which is great. The book includes two copies of each image so you can color them in two different colors or mediums. You can also download the free PDF of all the pages for printing on different paper or card stock. PDF file is also great if you want to make the picture smaller to use it to make a card or other craft project. I have eight or nine of Jade Summer's coloring books and like all of them. I share some of the pages with my teen and pre-teen nieces and they love coloring in them too.
