Customer Reviews

This is hard to deal with because it is not divided by chapters or sections, such as fudge, toffee, or creams. It's all lumped together. That said it is a very good grounding in making candy of various types. You can pick up the general idea from it.

The recipes produced results of the kinds of candy my grandmother used to make.

Like all candies, there are some you like and some you don’t. But it is still a good book to have in my collection.

Easy to follow, fun to make, great tasting treats you can make alone or with family and friends. Try it, you’ll like it.

Now I just have to figure out how to print individual recipes

Plan on making some of these receipes for Christmas this year.

Yummmmmm
