Synopsis

We’ve had singers, sports stars, and comedians [on the show], but Jef Mallett is the first artist to take the stage. And boy does he make his first appearance count." --The Bob and Tom Radio ShowNominated by the National Cartoonist Society as Best Comic Strip, Jef Mallett’s Frazz follows the life of Bryson Elementary School janitor and hit-songwriting-wonder Edwin Frazier. An all-round Renaissance man, role model, and friend rolled into one, Frazz feels as comfortable philosophizing with the students as he is with the teachers and principal.Always placing an emphasis on the importance of seizing opportunities to learn and grow, Frazz is a family favorite and multiple-year recipient of the Wilbur Award from the Religion Communicators Council for excellence in communicating values and ethics.

Customer Reviews

The only problem with Frazz is that there just isn’t enough of him. We need another 10 books or so.

There is a gentle soul who is wise beyond his years, loves children, and forsakes the riches of his songwriting career to stay on as janitor at Bryson Elementary in an imaginary Michigan town. His name is Edwin Frazier, he is thirty-plus, he is in love with Bryson's first-grade teacher and he dispenses wisdom to the young students who ADORE him because he is "one of them" at heart.You cannot fool a child with false concern; Frazz fits right in and keeps the lines of communication between teachers and staff wide open, thanks to the comic genius of Frazz's creator, Jef Mallett. For humorous appeal, Frazz ranks right up there with GARFIELD, CALVIN AND HOBBES, SHERMAN'S LAGOON, and FRANK AND ERNEST. And FRAZZ tugs at the heartstrings like ZIGGY and MUTTS. This comic strip is a MUSTREAD for all those who appreciate the humor in life, and the life in humor!

Frazz is a wonderfully funny comic. I've read all three books several times, and they make me laugh out loud every time.Best comic strip since Calvin and Hobbs. Incidentally, I'm pretty sure that Frazz is Calvin grown up, even if Mallett denies it.

Frazz... the best comic right now.

Always great! Somewhat erratic use of page space which inflates the number of pages but still well worth while.

More fun and games at Bryson Elementary. One of the best and most thought out strips published today.

I love Frazz. The wisdom of Peanuts and the wit of B.C. with the energy and charm of Calvin and Hobbes.

Very entertaining compilation of Jef's Frazz strips, what a funny and life like comic he has put together. Looking forward to more of his compilation books.
