Customer Reviews

This book exceeded my expectations. It was extremely easy to read. It is very intimate, a mother writing to her daughter. I felt close to the author. She is teaching her daughter how to be a woman and wife by examining the Bible and her life.

I am reading this book as part of a small women's group. Elisabeth Elliot is poignant, relatable, & wise. There are parts of the book that make you naturally balk, but after further reading, you see the truths in her words. This is a book that I will give to my daughter when she is older and should be given to any female on the brink of adulthood.

Written for her daughter, but beautiful and practical for all women. The way she writes makes you feel as if you might be having this chat over tea. I adore this book and it will be a required read for both of my girls when I feel they are mature enough.

Very well written and some very interesting thoughts on being a woman that are still very much relevant in this day and age.

In her delightful, straightforward style, Elisabeth Elliott brings you alongside like a daughter. Candid. Loving. Caring. Godly. Definitely a must for every young lady.

Great book for a high school graduate, woman planning marriage, or a 50+ year old woman. After 32 years of marriage I was able to glean a better understanding of my spouse.

This is one of my favorite books! Definitely a must read for any woman who truly wants to know her role in this world. It's liberating to fulfill the real purpose we as women were created for and to understand why we're wired the way we are. Easy to read, and easy to understand.

It's a nice read by a special lady! Unfortunately it didn't really work so well as a Bible study with the ladies. But it is still a nice read!
