Larry Newman is the Founder and Director of Children's Music Workshop. He holds a Bachelor of Music Education, cum laude degree from Temple University's College of Music, a California teaching credential and a Master of Arts in Music Performance from Eastern Illinois University. Formerly an instrumental music teacher in the Philadelphia School District, Los Angeles Unified School District, and Santa Monica-Malibu Public Schools, Mr. Newman has supervised music programs in more than eighty public and private institutions from the Kindergarten through college levels. His rich diversity of experience includes schools from East L.A. to Malibu and from South Central L.A. to the San Fernando Valley. Larry Newman was the recipient of the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences' 62nd Annual Los Angeles area Emmy award for Children/Youth Programming. Mr Newman wrote, directed and produced the All Schools Elementary Honor

Orchestra shows which have aired nationally and feature students from more than two dozen Children’s Music Workshop school programs. This was Mr. Newman’s third Emmy win. He also received Emmys in 2009 and 2008 for those honor orchestra broadcasts and was most recently nominated in 2011 for a fourth Emmy for Orchestra Kids 2010. In 2009, Mr. Newman was honored by the Los Angeles City Council at City Hall for his contributions to music education in Los Angeles. He was also featured on CityView’s Channel 35 series, "Faces of LA". Mr. Newman received the 2006 Lori Petrick Excellence in Education Award from the Palisades Charter Schools Foundation. The award is underwritten by the Boone Foundation - a philanthropic group whose mission is to support "passionate people who provide excellent programs to youth". Larry Newman was also one of 40 teachers nominated for the 2007 25th Annual BRAVO Award, established in 1982 by the Music Center of Los Angeles County to recognize individuals for innovation and excellence in arts education. Mr. Newman is author of the Recorder Fun Book - one of the top classroom recorder methods in the country. It is used in hundreds of elementary schools throughout the United States. He is also the author of the Violin Fun Book and Beginning Band Fun Books - group method books used in all Children’s Music Workshop music programs. I’m using this to teach my kindergartner in our homeschool. He loves this book and advances quickly and picked up how to read the music right away. Definitely recommend.

I was really impressed with the pages that you can see for free, and so bought the book for my niece. It is really easy to learn, not only how to play the recorder, but also how to read music. Simple songs are right at the beginning so you are not stuck doing exercise routines, but have fun playing music on the recorder.

Great for that "you have to start somewhere" appeal. Not too difficult and holds the attention of a young learning child.

Interesting book

Satisfactory

The Recorder Fun Book has been around for years and is used in hundreds of schools. This new

Third Edition has all the same pages and exercises as the second edition - but the author has added more than thirty additional pages of solos, duets and even instrument coloring pages. Best recorder book on the market!

Progression is effective and very age appropriate for a young, first-time musician with clear explanations of finger placement and rhythms. Electronic links were a complete disappointment as they didn't work, they linked to the exact same song that was printed in the book (not enrichment), or they linked to an option to purchase other books.

We use this book in conjunction with our music class curriculum. It really helps to teach the different notes and makes reading music come naturally. It starts out easy and gradually increases in difficulty. It has so many songs and so far my 10 year old loves it. I even got a recorder so I can join in too! Great buy.
