Customer Reviews

I consider it more of a 3.5The book is great, good quality, it really takes you behind tezuka's methods for defining his characters, but at only 140 pages, it feels like there could have been so much more here.Each page is a sketchbook page, it seems obvious but I didn't realize the whole book was literally a sketchbook. It isn't a bad thing at all but just so you know.If another of these books was printed and it had significantly more sketches, I'd buy it in a heartbeat.
