This is a serial and if you do not like them I highly suggest you do not get that because it is a nice quick read. I did however enjoy this story and I am new to this author so I can't wait to see where it goes .

Reverse harem with a Demi goddess and 4 hot guardians? Yes please! This is a nice quick read with a really interesting story line and great characters. I can't wait for more.

This is a series ...I will be waiting...for each instalment . Hot guys,super story line. I really enjoy the way Skye Mackinnon writes. Will be following this author for a long time to come Skye MacKinnon is brilliant in Winter Princess: Episode 1. I was hooked from the very first paragraph, and I can't wait to see where Wynter's story goes. If you love magic and hot guys, this is definitely the serial for you.

Winter princess is the first part of a new reverse harem serial. I don't want to give too much away but I think everyone should give this serial a go.The story is about Wynter aka Wyn the daughter of the Winter Queen, a goddess. Wyn was raised in the human realm having little to know contact with her birth mum. Her mum sends for her on her 22nd birthday, the day when her powers come into full effect, sending 4 Guardians (that I want to eat, they are that hot) to collect her and bring her to the gods realm.Wyn's internal dialogue and sense of humour had me laughing out loud a few times. I found Wyn personality similar to that of Willa from the Curse of the Gods series. With Wyns essences being similar to Willa I can't wait to see what is installed next.I can't wait to see more of Wyn and her Guardians and see what comes next for them. I expect a lot more funny moments and great banter to come. I know I didn't talk a lot about the four Guardians but that's because I think you should read and find out about Storm, Frost, Arc and Crispin for yourself. You won't be disappointed ;)

Winter Princess is the first installment of another new Reverse Harem serial. For those of you who do not want your stories in small portions, who prefer the entire book or even series to be complete before you start reading, this is not for you. For readers who want a delightful segment of an on-going story, you will enjoy this one. Wyn is a demi-goddess reaching her magical maturity on her 22nd birthday. She hasn't been given any details about what she can expect and since she's been raised in the human world, really has no idea about the magical world at all. She has been told to expect guardians to pick her up on her birthday to take her to the Winter Queen, her mother.Wyn's birthday arrives and chaos ensues. It's a disaster only halted by the arrival of 4 gorgeous guardians. They are on their way as quickly as possible, but it's not easy. Wyn's out of control, there are complications, and an enemy along the way. Wyn seems like she will be a good lead female. It's early in the story and she's overwhelmed, so we haven't seen her at her best yet. Still, at the end of the book it is clear that she has brains and powerful magic. The guardians, Storm, the scowling twin, Frost, the smiling twin, Arc the sexy Scot who gives great hugs, and Crispin, the beautiful blond. We don't know much about them yet, but I look forward to more time with them in the future.The only negative about this installment is it's length. It was short even for a serial. However, it did end at a natural break for storytelling and there's a lot packed in to this first segment. It sets up the entire serial. I look forward to learning more of Wyn's background, her powers, her guardians, and the Winter Realm in the next installment.

I wanted to like this serial I really did but I felt there was something missing its why IÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢m giving it a 3.5 instead of 4 stars. The concept of the story captured my attention but I felt I need more information on the characters or maybe even the general plot. I understand itÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢s hard to fit so much information in the first episode of a serial and IÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢m ok with that, but like I said before I canÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢t really put my finger on whatÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢s missing but there is.The focus of this episode is Wyn, a demi-goddess, and her transition into her 22nd birthday. She was raised in the human world with little contact from her real goddess of a mother and raised by humans and doesnÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢t know what to expect. She receives a cryptic letter from said goddess mother saying that on her 22nd birthday be expecting 4 guardians to show up at your door and bring you back to some god realm. When her 22nd birthday comes things happen she didnÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢t expect and in comes the 4 Guardians to help her though this change and bring her home, and so the story goes.Like I said the story has promise and I plan to continue reading but I hope that as the episodes continue I get a better feel on the characters and a better introduction on her 4 Guardians.

I couldn't put Episode 1 down! I have seen an increase in serials lately and this one was one of the better ones I have read. It gave me enough info/action to keep me interested and now I'm impatiently waiting for Episode 2 :) I liked how quickly I was sucked in; I immediately loved her parents/relationship between them. I have read a lot of RH's recently that don't have great beginnings for the MC, but I liked that despite Wyn's real mom being absent, she had a good upbringing/strong relationship with her family.I liked that Wyn shows her continuous struggle to handle everything that is thrown at her. She isn't giving up, but she definitely doesn't have anything under control which provides a lot of growth for the future. I liked the differences between the 4

Guardians...I'm not sure who my favorite is yet haha. I think after the next episode I should have a better idea. I think the only critique I could give was that it felt kinda sudden how she could control her powers enough to accomplish what she did at the end of the episode (don't want to spoil anything). She goes from being totally out of control to being somewhat proficient without training or much experience with those powers specifically. It might have been rushed a bit because of the size of the different episodes, but besides that I thought it was great! I am excited for the next installments and would recommend this serial to others!
