Synopsis

Day Hikes In the Beartooth Mountains, Montana provides easy access to 58 of the best day hikes in this beautiful mountain range bordering Yellowstone National Park. These hikes are found around Red Lodge, Montana, an active resort and ski town, and along the Beartooth Highway that connects Red Lodge to Yellowstone Park. The trails lie in the drainages, canyons and across the plateaus of this mountain range. Many are accessible from the Beartooth Highway, a beautiful mountain pass heralded as "the most scenic highway in America" by Charles Kuralt. The hiker will be taken to waterfalls, cascading rivers, canyons, high-mountain lakes, alpine tundra, glaciers, panoramic views, and outstanding scenery. The hikes range from easy to moderately strenuous. All can be hiked within the day. Each hike includes a map, a summary of its highlights, and concise driving and hiking directions. There is also an overall map of the 58 hikes and the major access roads. This comprehensive guide covers nearly every hiking trail in the area.

Robert Stone grew up hiking and backpacking in the Sierra Nevada Mountains in Northern California. As a boy he learned and practiced the basics of wilderness survival and low impact camping. Robert has lived in the Rocky Mountains of Montana since the late 1970s. When he is not traveling, he continues to horsepack and hike extensively throughout Yellowstone National Park, Grand Teton National Park, and the Beartooth Mountains. His love of travel and deep interest in the outdoors led Robert to work on hiking guides year-round as a writer, photographer, and publisher. He has hiked every trail in every Day Hikes book.

This book was a great help on my recent stay in Red Lodge, Cooke City and Silver Gate Mt. It helped me find hikes I would have otherwise never known and many hikes outside of Yellowstone were dog friendly.

good information on hikes in this area

Easy to follow directions to trail heads.

This book is simple and outlines the day hikes I wanted to know about along the famous Beartooth Highway. It has the just the right amount of neccesary info and not loaded with filler fluff and opinions. With the correct topo maps and this book I’m all set. Thanks!

I’ve used this book many times in my visits to Red Lodge. While it claims to cover the "best" hikes, it really covers them all. The details of driving directions, etc. are right on. But on our last visit, last week, the hikes we picked out of the book were marginal and hard to find and follow. For us as dedicated Beartooth hikers, this book is a great resource. But it needs more comparison and more opinion. What’s good about Hike #4 compared with Hike #5?
