Customer Reviews

Maybe 31 pages of extraordinary ideas such as ’Get Your Photo Taken in a Red Phone Booth’ or ’Go Punting in Oxford’. Each obvious idea followed by a few sentences more of "duhhhhh". Unbelievable.

Not quite a book. More like a pamphlet. It took ten minutes to read.

Excellent book! This book is contained with a lot of information about how can we make our travel more and more happier and easier. I think this is the best helpful guide on Great Britain Travel.

I found a couple of places from the book that interested me, although it was not what I thought it would be.

it was a complete waste of money. the only reason I marked 1 star is because it won’t allow me to give it a rating of 0 stars. This is the last time I buy a book on without having held it in my hand first. Besides being useless, the book consisted of 2 items per page with 1 or 2 sentences for each. It couldn’t have taken the ’author’ more than a day or 2 to compile it.

The guide lacks geographic organization and has no pictures at all. It does not even have a map of the UK for reference.

Gives quite limited information. Doesn’t even tell which country some of the attractions are in.

Disappointing
