Synopsis

A fascinating tour among the countless modern and traditional facets of ItalyÃ¢â ¬â„¢s "big city." An art city and a fashion, business, and nightlife capital, as well as a testing ground for urban planning with the 2015 Expo: with over one hundred photographs, Milan Highlights offers a fascinating tour of the architecture, masterpieces, and hidden corners of Milan. The volume provides an all-around view of the city by taking into account those aspects which make it unique: art, fashion, nightlife, design, historic districts, trivia, the San Siro stadiumÃ¢â ¬â •a veritable football templeÃ¢â ¬â •and La Scala theater, a temple to opera.This large-format volume presents both unusual glimpses and more conventional pictures of one of the worldÃ¢â ¬â„¢s most fascinating cities. The most evocative features of an ever-evolving city are encapsulated in a not-to-be-missed volume.

Customer Reviews

Massimo Zanella graduated in art history. He is an expert of iconography and the curator of editorial series on contemporary architecture and applied arts. He wrote books and contributions on art history and art criticism.

After living in Milan for 4 years, in a way you want to bring back a part of the city with you. This book features pictures and information of some of the main sights of the city, like the duomo, Santa Maria delle Grazie, (where the last supper is), the new modern Porta Nuova among many others, if you are curious about Milan, just want to gaze at the pictures, or just want to keep a permanent remainder of the city, this book is for you.

Happy to have found this book because it’s hard to find a book on modern Milano.
