The second volume shows that the alternate universe where Gwen Stacy becomes Spider-Woman is just as interesting and thick as the standard Marvel Universe we all know and love.Assuming you read vol 0: Most Wanted, you've already been introduced to the universe. Things continue to spiral for her in this story as she is not the same type of person as Peter Parker. I felt her personality in how she handled situations or avoided them. She's a hero but she's far from perfect and she's making plenty of mistakes along the way. But the girl has personality and heart and I'd love to see where her further adventures take her.

this isnt a really great story its just a a different view on what spiderman could have been. if youre a fan of the original and like spin offs there of this is an enjoyable one. one of my favourite parts is the art work. there is just so much fun in the visuals that reminds me of a lot of old school disney art work with some more modern elements as well as a water color feel to the art work as well. it all just comes together really well I loved this book.

After #0, this gets more exciting ans funier! Gwen stacy it’s a very great character! the way she goes up and down trying to balance her life it’s really worth to watch!She is on a constant strugle to be a good person, trying to be there for the ones she cares about (many times it seems that she fails at that!). This strugle is also in the road to become in a very good hero, this brings her very deep conflicts in her personal life, and has to deal with a lot of people who does not want her arround, they persecute her as if she were any delinquent.Every page leaves you wanting to know more and more. I highly reomend it, Also thank you so much to the seller, this ariived in excellent condictions and super quick!

I absolutely love this series! I’ve been a strictly DC guy for a long time, hadn’t really read any Marvel since the early 2000’s, but this series intrigued me and got me hooked. I read volume 0 and before I got to the last chapter I already had my order in for Volume 1. Now it pains me that I have to wait till January for volume 2 or go out and pick it up monthly. It’s funny, smart, and a refreshingly new take on the Spider-Man mythos. Great stuff!

This is awesome! The comic keeps on going with all that makes Spider-Gwen fun. The story keeps making it so the Gwen Stacy isn’t just another female Spider Man. It defines her as a complex character with her own foibles and a lot of the traditional Spider Man traits (wanted by the authorities, hated by the media, and perpetually wise cracking). It also brings in some other super heroes, Captain America, Falcon, and the Green Goblin were all different than what you would have immediately guessed. You should ready this comic.

My daughter loved it! She wants to start reading all about SpiderGwen now... :)

The story moves quickly and has an interesting twist on the standard Spiderman myths of being feared as a public menace.

Sorry I guess it was something else...not a big comic fan unless its Dark Shadows.
