Customer Reviews

With more than 65,000 copies sold, the most popular travel and relocation guide to Virginia’s capital city is a must have for those planning a romantic weekend getaway, an educational trip with the kids, a business trip or a permanent relocation.

It provided a nice snapshot or Richmond.

As son was transferred to a suburb of Richmond and knew no one and had no clue as where to go, this book was given as a gift. He has since told me that it provided restaurants to try and places of interest plus locales to find a permanent place to live.

Practical, easy-to-read, fun guide!Thanks to reading this book beforehand, our family had the best weekend trip in our lives!Buy it, read it, travel, enjoy!!!!! :-)P.S. To the author of the review on the bottom of the page: hey, smart pants, what does you review have to do with this book? People are making fun of you, be a sweety and delete it!

Your review skewed the system. Keep this info to yourself. The search engine has NOTHING to do with a review for a book. IDIOT!The book ROCKS and, yes, while it has nothing to do with West Virginia, (and I consider that a plus) it explains in detail the ideocyracies of the fine city of Richmond.
