Synopsis

"There was a fight between the guys two weeks ago. A bet spiralled out of control, or so I heardÃ¢â ¬Â¦ because the bet was supposed to be a secret.Ã¢â ¬Â• A girl, a boy, and a bet. Good girl Astrid Ella Bailey, the Oreo-loving school nerd of Evergreen High, has anxiety issues. Like any other nerd, she preferred to bury her nose in her books all day and avoid attention like the plague. She never got into trouble, save for that one time a kid ruined a photo of her best friendÃ¢â ¬Â¦ a very dear friend she just lost in a tragic accident. Bad boy Kai Asher, her high schoolÃ¢â ¬â„¢s head playboy, is trouble incarnate. Intense, rough, and sexy, heÃ¢â ¬â„¢s the one who makes all the girls swoon. One flirtatious wink and their heartÃ¢â ¬â„¢s bend like clay dough. Oh, the shame when they all break like fragile china. A bet is made, tempers flare up, and punches are thrown.And when the good girl crashes into the bad boy Ã¢â ¬â • quite literally, screeching tires and smoking hoods included Ã¢â ¬â • the school went wild with intrigue. Astrid was thrown into the spotlight, and extra attention is never good for an almost antisocial nerd. What was the bet? And why did Kai suddenly appear Ã¢â ¬â • in all his half-naked glory Ã¢â ¬â • at AstridÃ¢â ¬â„¢s next door window one day? Can she resist his insane sexual innuendos, or will she lose her sanity? Or whatÃ¢â ¬â„¢s left of it, anyway.Settle into this bad boy next door YA romance and prepare to get hooked. Light-hearted and humorous. Grab your copy now.

Customer Reviews

I chose this rating because the story does NOT reflect values that this story tried to portray. It does not reflect a positive view of the characters. Listen this story for me was a waste of my TIME. I am VERY disappointed. There are questions and story lines that just didn't make sense to me. The story was very thought out but the delivery was non existent. It was very jagged in that some of the scenarios we're said but not followed through and although I did like the premise it fizzled out in the first chapter. I did try to give it a shot though and continued reading it BUT honestly it is Just a bunch of fillery and no substance. In my opinion if you want to waste a few hours of YOUR valuable time here you go! I honestly DON'T know what this author was thinking! It is her STORY to tell. Thank you for telling it BUT I won't be recommending it.

Great characters. Great storyline. Great sub-stories. I loved how the bullied becomes strong enough to stand up to the bullies and take control of her happiness back from them. I hope her story continues to unfold in New York. I want to know how her bravery makes a difference for her.

One of my favorite books, there needs to be a sequel, I went crazy at the endingÃƒÂ Ã Å¸Ã ËœÃ Â-

It was really good although I didn't look i.e. the way it ended it ended like there is going to be a sequel

This was my first book by this author and although it wasnt what I expected it was an okay read. There could have been a lot more detail involved and the ending was lacking therefore only earning 3 stars from me

I enjoyed this book very much, it was extremely emotional. There is a message for all young adults in this book about bullying! All parents and teens should read this book! A definite five star book!

I loved this story a whole lot more then I thought I would all the characters and the storyline couldn't put it down untill the end..... it just ended with no sign of there being a sequal or anything I truly hope there is going to be more after this book, we need to see what becomes of them because if this is how their story ends it's just going to be one of those stories you wished you never started a overprized book with a DISAPPOINTING ending.

Finally have the book in my hands! (Not literally) Once you start this book, you will not be able to put it down. Buy this book and give it a read.
