This study guide offers the reader excellent test-taking strategies to help build your confidence before tackling your exam.This study guide is broken down into the core curriculum categories:Language ArtsMathematicsScienceSocial StudiesAfter your review of each subject you are provided with full length practice questions for each subject area. Following each practice test you will find the answer and thorough explanation as to why that answer is correct. These practice questions aid you in identifying your strengths and weaknesses allowing you to set up a more personalized study plan for success.I recommend this study guide to anyone that is preparing for their HiSet (GED / TASC Alternative).

I bought this for a friends daughter. She said the Book was very helpful and had almost all the information needed to prepare for the High School Equivalency test. It is a fairly large book that covers everything you need to know. The Book Is High quality and detailed. The font is a nice size and easy to read. I would recommend this if you need a study book or know someone that needs one. The price is very reasonable.

With this book you can be successful in your exams. This book has all the information and is very accurate and easy to study. Is very good.
