Synopsis

Gabon, the land of the surfing hippo, is a West African country home to truly exceptional biodiversity. 30,000 gorillas stalk the jungle, manatees and humpbacks are present around the countryÃ¢â ¬â„¢s 800km of coastline and GabonÃ¢â ¬â„¢s 13 national parks offer wildlife-watching experiences unlike any other. BradtÃ¢â ¬â„¢s Gabon is the only English-language guidebook available and includes a comprehensive section on the countryÃ¢â ¬â„¢s birds and bird-watching alongside chapters on history and culture. Gabon aims to attract 100,000 high and middle-end visitors by 2020 and has publicly destroyed its ivory stocks, recognizing the countryÃ¢â ¬â„¢s future value as an eco-tourism destination.

Customer Reviews

Annelies Hickendorff first set foot in Gabon in 2006 during a 25,000km overland journey. Entranced by the countryÃ¢â ¬â„¢s exceptional natural beauty she has been returning ever since.

I always buy lonely planet, but they don’t have for Gabon. I was really impressed with this book. Very well written and interesting and useful.

What a great find!! It is very hard to find useful inforamtion about independent travel in Gabon, so this book is very much appreciated!!
