Great book to read or I should say select a prayers that moves you. It’s not a story but a compilation of different prayers to help you through what diffcult time you are going through.

The only negative is that it turns Hebrew when cited into gibberishIt is something to keep handy on your kindle

A book full of prayers for all kinds healing prayers for all kinds of situations.. It is written by Jews for Jews, but this book could be for anyone of any religion...

This book saved us; mind, body and soul recently when we had a family tragedy; it became a necessary daily companion reader and prayer book as we were at the hospital; it lifted us up when we were down, it inspired us and gave us hope and helped us into acceptance of those things you cannot change; it renewed our Faith in our Creator. Thank you to Rabbi Shira Stern for synthesizing all these beautiful prayers from the Bible into a life saving book of Healing. This book was written by a seasoned Chaplain who took from her own experiences and gathered from others’s experiences in a hospital setting. What do people need when faced with uncertainty, unexpected tragedies, terminal illnesses, impending death; and the courage to continue in the face of this? They need a Good Chaplain, their faith, and this book!

Thoughtful compilation of thoughts and ideas about healing and compassion.

This is a great little book with wonderful readings and prayers. It is perfect for visits to those in hospital, hospice, or just going through a difficult time. I am a Cantor, and I find this book very useful for my work in pastoral care and counseling. Highly recommended!

I love this book! It provides prayers for a wide variety of circumstances, such as for gender transition, for infertility, for facing dementia, for ending life support, and many other circumstances that aren't addressed in other prayer books. The prayers face these issues head on, and using them can lead to important, deep discussions with those for whom the prayers are written. I would highly recommend this book for anyone who visits people who are ill, from rabbis and cantors to Jewish chaplins and other volunteers.
