After reading Garrett, I was excited to find out what would happen with his brothers, and Brent was a fantastic followup! It can be read as a standalone, but I'd recommend starting at the beginning of the series with Garrett.I don’t want to spoil any major plot points, but I loved that this book had a Dom (Calen) who was different than what you usually expect from a Dom, and Brent was a perfect fit for him. There’s a lot of tease leading up to them actually doing a scene together, but it was HOT throughout regardless! Their chemistry is off the charts!It was fun to see Wyatt and Garrett from the first book, and you can definitely see the pieces falling together for the other brothers to find their happiness, too. I can’t wait for their books! This author excels at making the characters seem real and making the reader care about and root for them.

What a phenomenal book. This is a beautiful BDSM love story between Brent and Calen. It was nice to read about the rest of the brothers. This is a fabulous series. It is nice to see these two who started out as friends and discover they make the perfect Dom/Sub couple. I read this book in one day. I can’t wait to read about the other two brothers. I highly recommend reading this book.

I loved Brent and Calen and how they had been friends for years before realizing that they were perfect for one another. It was refreshing to see a D/s relationship that really was unique and not simply a cookie cutter that talks about kink being different from couple to couple, but doesn’t actually deliver on the rhetoric

I really enjoyed the beginning. I liked how they were both quirky in their kink but perfect for each other if they would just take the chance to find out. Brent is Garrett’s brother, who we met in the first book. Calen is Garrett’s best friend & office manager. Both are questioning themselves after a brief interaction at the club. Will the other be able to handle their quirks? I looked forward to watching them figure it out.I did not enjoy the conversations & interactions as much as the previous books. Calen calling Brent sub & subbie all the time - idk, I just didn’t like it. There was a point that Brent was referred to as ’the sub’ & it just lessened the connection between these men. I felt disconnected with the relationship they were trying to build.I received an ARC from the author.

Have you ever read a story where the MCs are PERFECT for each other, but are either so oblivious to what’s right in front of them, or so afraid they ignore the signs, that you want to scream with frustration?! Well, Brent and Calen are at the top of my list in this sexy, hot, snarky, and definitely not your average BDSM tale. I think Shaw Montgomery is a fantastic author, and can’t wait to see what she comes out with next.

I love this series! Brent and Calen were such a fun and sexy couple. I was happy to read about a Dom and sub who weren't at all like the cookie cutter types I often read about. I have enjoyed the first two couples so much, I can't wait to see the next in line. Shaw Montgomery is one of my favorite authors because of her ability to make me love her characters. I highly recommend this story.

I enjoyed Brent and Calen very much!! They were so sweet together and fit together perfectly. I love how the author touched on the fact that most believe that the Dom has to top and the sub always has to bottom and showed another aspect. That is absolutely not true so I enjoyed her showcasing this!! I'm not sure who I want to read about next between Grant/Carter and Bryce and his duo. Hmm...I do love a good triad!!

What a wicked family this is .... I love all of them. I understood Brent from the first introduction in previous books but Calen was hard to figure out. It took until the final scene between them for me to understand his particular kink. I had problems understanding how the dynamic would work but the author did an excellent job portraying such a scene. Totally hot.
