MARY POPE OSBORNE and NATALIE POPE BOYCE are sisters who grew up on army posts all over the world. They are working on more Magic Tree HouseÃ Â® Fact Tracker books to give Magic Tree House readers facts and information about places, time periods, and animals that Jack and Annie discover in the Magic Tree House adventures. Ã Â Mary lives in Connecticut. Natalie makes her home nearby in the Berkshire Hills of Massachusetts. Mary is the author of all the Magic Tree House fiction titles as well as many more books for kids. Ã Â SAL MURDOCCA has illustrated more than 200 children's trade and text books. He is also a librettist for children's opera, a video artist, an avid runner, hiker, and bicyclist, and a teacher of children's illustration at the Parsons School of Design. Sal lives and works in New York with his wife, Nancy.

I read this book in conjunction with In2Books, a program which pairs willing adults with students in schools across the country. My student and I both enjoyed it a great deal.This is a factual book with lots of information about natural disasters both modern and historical. There are even safety suggestions for those caught in these precarious situations. An enjoyable read for me as an adult, and my fourth grade student seemed equally enthralled.

I can't tell you how many times my son has read this book since it made its way into our home.....and even now whenever we leave the house he carries all his Magic Tree house books with him... but he espcially finds this one interesting. I love how out of the blue he'll say mom do you know such and such.....and...oh and mom do you know such and such....lol....and I have to admit he has actually taught me a few things. :D

Nice books, my nieces love them.

My students thoroughly enjoy this book. They love the non-fiction books in general. We actually used this for research on a natural disaster project this year and this was perfect.

My granddaughter loved this Christmas gift.

My 7 year old grandson LOVES these fact tracker books that are companions to the Magic Tree House Series. Interesting facts, with out being too graphic or intense. I think that they are great for helping children learn about the world around them.

Grandson loves this book!

Great chapter books!
