Synopsis

Now batting clean-upÃ¢â ¬â •book #4 in a new early chapter book mystery series where each book is set in a different American ballpark! Houston, we have a problem! Before a game at the Astros' ballpark, Mike and Kate get to meet astronaut commander Nick Rice at the nearby Houston Space Center. He's planning to display a very rare moonrock at an autographing event later. But just before the event, a nefarious outlaw knocks out the commander and steals the moonrock! Can Mike and Kate figure out who did it . . . when their only clue is a broken green feather?The Astro Outlaw includes a fun act page about the Houston Astros' stadium with trivia about the train on the outfield wall and the homerun gas pump.Cross Ron Roy's A to Z Mystery series with Matt Christopher's sports books and you get the Ballpark Mysteries: fun, puzzling whodunnits aimed at the younger brothers and sisters of John Feinstein's fans.

DAVID A. KELLY has written for many newspapers and magazines, and Babe Ruth and the Baseball Curse, published in spring 2009, was his first book for children. He lives 15 minutes from just what my grandson wanted. easy shopping.

Fenway Park in Newton, Massachusetts, with his wife, Alice; two sons, Steven and Scott; and a dog named Sam.MARK MEYERS grew up in Utah and studied art in San Francisco at the Academy of Art University.

My son absolutely devoured these books. He’s six and a huge baseball fan. These books are challenging enough that they take a while to read (we often alternate and read a few pages to him, then let him read to us) - which is a good thing b/c we’ve gotten through the series very fast! These books are fun, fact-filled and exciting for young readers. I highly recommend these books and I’m so glad that I stumbled across this series in an search. My son can’t wait for book #6 to be released in February.

My sons love these books. They are easy to ready and keep them engaged all the way through. Great for a fan of mystery or a fan of baseball.

My eight year old loves this series. It’s both a mystery and sports book. What could be better?! Definitely recommend.

My 7 year old son is devouring this series! He has finished all the books and is eagerly awaiting the next one. He has to do 20 mins of reading a day for school and has a book report due each week. these books are the perfect length and he has never had trouble with the vocabulary or summarizing the plot. Highly recommended!

Giving this series as birthday presents to my child’s classmates and they are a huge hit!.

Great books for young men who love baseball and have to read for school!

My grandson just loves the entire series!
