International best-selling boysÃ¢â ¬â„¢ love mangaka Ayano Yamane is the creator of A Foreign Love Affair and theFinder series. A native of Hyogo Prefecture, she was born a Sagittarius on December 18th and has an A blood type. You can find out more about Ayano Yamane via her Twitter account, @yamaneayano, or her website, www.yamaneayano.com.

This book has everything you could want in a yaoi manga. There are smoking hot guys (Havi is downright delicious) and blistering sex, but there’s so much more. There is depth to the fantasy plotline, and a genuine sweetness to the story. You really find yourself rooting for Vald and Havi, and you just know that once they’re together again everything will turn out alright. I won’t reveal anything that will ruin it for you; it’s much better to discover it on your own! If you are a fan of yaoi, like I am, then you will love this book. I own the first and second volumes, and both are superb.

There isn’t as much sex in the second volume; it’s more devoted to developing the story. Vald and Havi are also separated for a good chunk of volume two, which also cuts down on the intimacy a little. Not to worry though, you get your fix before volume two ends. :)

I truly enjoyed the fantasy world Yamane created inÃ Â The Crimson Spell, Vol. 1, and this excellent sequel expands that world, and the characters. The story begins right where volume 1 left off. The plot advances as Havi realizes the magician behind the curse may still be alive and needs to be confronted. Crimson Spell has a disinctly "Dungeons & Dragons" feel to it as they travel the land searching for answers and have adevntures along the way: fighting demons to protect a village, getting robbed by a wanderer they stop to help, etc. There is a lot of action, including violent sword fighting & magical duels, in the book. Havi and Vald’s relationship also gets a jolt when Havi kisses Vald when he’s not in demon form and Vald rebuffs him and runs off confused. He still doesn’t know what he does with Havi when he’s the demon (oh, and there are more than a couple smoking hot scenes of that!) Then, Havi is kidnapped by the villain...Overall, this is an engrossing series. It’s so sad that it is no longer in print in English. I truly hope with the popularity of Finder, Crimson Spell will be picked up for a new license. I’d love to read volumes 3 and 4. Highly recommended - if you can find a copy.

If you like yaoi love stories, fantasy novels, and are ok with viewing love/sex scenes, I highly recommend this series! And I would also recommend another of her works (which is not a fantasy novel), the "Viewfinder" series. Your find it referred to by various names, I call it by the name of the first volume, "Target in the Viewfinder." Now, about my book...The book condition was EXCELLENT and crisp. While I lovemy Kindle, and originally wanted this as an ebook, there are times when nothing beats the sensation of holding a book in your hand and immersing yourself in a good story. Thank you and Ayano Yamane for an enjoyable experience.

I’ve always been a fan of this series, truly a great read and will make a excellent edition to anyone’s personal library. Wow!!! ^-^

Wonderful!

absolutely love this series! some purchasers have complained that the text is incorrect in their volumes.. (Bald instead of Vald).. but my volume used ’Vald’ so I was happy ^_^ one of my favorite yaoi series after The Tyrant Falls In Love .. would definitely recommend this one, especially if you're tired of the typical yaoi romances and typical day to day life. Fantasy + yaoi is the perfect match.

Oh my god this story o///o just wow...pretty interesting concept but o///o . if you are looking for a good yaoi with erotic fantasy then this is it. It gets pretty detailed.

Love the art. Ayano Yamane is an awesome mangaka and story telling. I can't wait for more of this series,
