Ã¢â ¬Å“My name is A.J. and I hate school.Ã¢â ¬Â• The first sentence in the My Weirder School series echoes the opening lines of GutmanÃ¢â ¬â„¢s My Weird School Daze and My Weird School series. In the new book, Miss Child leads a class tour of the zoo, where the students watch an elephant painting pictures, a gorilla using sometimes-rude sign language, and a child who has fallen into the lion enclosure. A cool, skateboarding girl joins the class, but most of the characters are the same, the bookÃ¢â ¬â„¢s tone is the same, and the illustration style is the same. So what is different about the new series? A. J. and his classmates, who were in second grade in the My Weird School series and on summer vacation in My Weird School Daze, are now starting third grade, and . . . well, actually, that is about it. Fans of the previous, hugely popular series will continue to enjoy the kidsÃ¢â ¬â„¢ banter, the lowbrow humor, and the antics of the wacky adults who run the show. Grades 1-3. --Carolyn Phelan --This text refers to the Library Binding edition.

My Weirder School weirder than ever!The third grade has won a weird contest, so they get to go on a field trip to the zoo. That's how they meet Miss Child, the weirdest zookeeper in the history of the world. She thinks animals are smarter than people! She thinks elephants can paint pictures! She keeps snakes in her pockets for fun! Guess who's going to wind up in a cage with a lion?
