Customer Reviews

I got books 1 and 2 for my granddaughter who just started to play about 3 months ago. She was delighted with both books.

20 Easy Christmas Carols for Beginners Alto Sax is the perfect book for a Level 1 Alto Sax player.

Pros: Pitches match range of most beginners, rhythms are fairly easy and songs chosen for arrangements are fine.Cons: Choice of key for some arrangements is ridiculous for beginners. No beginner book should have 5 sharps in any of the key signatures. Layout of the pages is amateur. Arranger left the instrument names at the beginning of each line which takes up margin space making the songs only 2-3 measures per line. Looks like a hastily whipped together product where arrangements were copied and pasted from one instrument to another in their notation program. Should have had someone who actually teaches saxophone look these over.
