I have always wanted to learn French and getting this book is my first step to self-learn the language. The first story was about a mysterious death of ladies in the red shoes. But the mystery was resolved by a young police officer named Thomas before the culprit could look for another victim.The glossary was directly taken from the short story that's why when I read it again and again, I clearly understand it because I have understood the glossary content and master it first.

This was a great way to read stories and learn at the same time. It takes some studying and real thinking about the use of words and the order difference from English. But it is a very good way to perfect your French.

This book is so helpful! IÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢ve studied French on my own for five months and these short stories allow me to integrate my knowledge into readings. Lots o free vocabs, which is good for beginners!
