Synopsis

Ã¢â ¬Â¢ Waterproof Ã¢â ¬Â¢ Tear-Resistant Ã¢â ¬Â¢ Topographic MapThe worldÃ¢â ¬â„¢s longest known cave system, Mammoth Cave is a fascinating and beautiful labyrinth located below the equally scenic Green River valley and hilly country of south central Kentucky. National GeographicÃ¢â ¬â„¢s Trails Illustrated map of Mammoth Cave National Park delivers unmatched detail and valuable information to assist you in your exploration of this unique and compelling region. Expertly researched and created in partnership with local land management agencies, this map features key points of interest including Green and Nolin rivers; First Creek Lake; Houchin Ferry; Turnhole Bend; Dennison Ferry; Maple Springs; and the cities of Brownsville and Park City. The print version of this map includes a detailed inset of the cave area, along with general information about the park and cave, as well as an inset of the historic entrance and vicinity.Designed with a wide range of visitors in mind, this map features detailed topography with contour lines, shaded relief and elevations; easy-to-read trails that are clearly marked according to use; accurate road network; visitor centers and facilities; plus, park regulations, and contact information for local agencies. Trail mileage between intersections will help you choose the path thatÃ¢â ¬â„¢s right for you. Boaters will appreciate the notation of river mileage, launch sites, and access points. Recreation features are clearly marked, including trailheads, campgrounds, fishing areas, interpretive trails, picnic areas, and rental cabins.Every Trails Illustrated map is printed on "Backcountry Tough" waterproof, tear-resistant paper. A full UTM grid is printed on the map to aid with GPS navigation.Other features found on this map include: Mammoth Cave National Park, Nolin River, The Knobs.Map Scale = 1:35,000 & 1:14,000Sheet Size = 37.75" x 25.5"Folded Size = 4.25" x 9.25"

Founded in 1915 as the Cartographic Group, the first division of National Geographic, National Geographic Maps has been responsible for illustrating the world around us through the art and science of mapmaking.Today, National Geographic Maps continues this mission by creating the world’s best wall maps, recreation maps, atlases, and globes which inspire people to care about and explore their world.

SO GLAD I BOUGHT THIS MAP!!! My friends and I went on a river camping trip down Green River and our boats washed away in the middle of the night after it rained so much the river rose about a foot. Based on the topographic lines on the map there was no way I was hiking out of there. It also includes points of interest labeled on the map I was able to give the DNR an accurate description of where we were and they got to us without any issue.

I love the mile markings on the Green River. I’m doing an overnight trip, and that will be very useful for making sure we go far enough but don’t go too far before setting up camp. The map isn’t much thicker than regular paper, but it’s either plastic or coated with plastic that’s durable and won’t tear. Kind of useful for map reading on the water!

This is a really nice map - durable, waterproof, a good size, and according to the park ranger, it used to be accurate. However, as of early 2015, most of the trails north of the river have been reconfigured and many of the trails shown on the map are CLOSED. You are better off with the free backcountry trails map provided at the visitor center.

This Mammoth Cave trail map shows exactly where the trails are in the park. This map, coupled with the FalconGuide of Mammoth Cave National Park, will prepare you for a pleasant experience with no surprises. National Geographic maps have always provided me with good, solid information.

Another high quality map from this series. These are a must for navigation. They are waterproof.

Just what I needed

Fantastic!

Just as I expected.
