Customer Reviews

"This is a sweet book all kids can relate to, about feeling shy or that you are just not ’cool’ enough for your classmatesÃ¢â ¬Â¦This is a universal story about gaining self-confidence, but it is rooted in the specifics of the Philippines." Ã¢â ¬â •AllDoneMonkey.com

My little 5-year-old loves this book. I was born and raised in the Philippines so this book is a nice way of helping my child learn about his Filipino heritage. I married an American so my child is only half Filipino but I'm determined to teach him Tagalog for when we visit Pinas. He already knows some Tagalog words and phrases but I'd like for him to be fluent someday.

My elementary-age love to read this book to each other and their loving Lola.

Nice!

Fast delivery and product was as described. Thank you!

Love it!!

I'm 40 years old and I loved this book. I was also surprised that my daughter kept asking me to read it night after night. The moral of the story is that we are each special and that being unique always comes in handy. Being ashamed about what makes us different won't help anyone.All this disguised behind a lovely and totally relatable storyline.Loved it.

This book for kids will surely make your heart melt.. each story is packed with tons of life lessons.. perfect read for growing kids!

Terrific!
