Synopsis

This eagerly awaited second edition has been updated with revised entries and values and much additional information, together with 2000 coloured images, some of them published for the first time. 2,300 medals are listed in the catalogue, all of which are fully described with informative entries, biographical and historical notes and a guide to current market values. The information is further completed by extensive bibliographic references, indexes, notes on using the catalogue and an introduction to the subject. With a considerable amount of information within its covers, the book has been designed for practical use and always with the reader in mind. It will not only serve collectors and dealers, but also those with a broader interest in the art and history of commemorative medals.
