Customer Reviews

These songs are all intermediate. I'm a highschool level player, so all songs require some practice before I get the hang of them. And my friend I was hoping to play these with doesn't really have time to practice, so we kinda just gave up on this book. I was hoping for more variety in difficulty. Also I was hoping for more variety in style. These all have the classical feel, like I'm playing for a royal audience and nobody is farting. Still, it's a great selection of fun intermediate classical songs and I've actually enjoyed and will continue to enjoy playing them!

Great all-purpose duet book for students of various levels. Nice arrangements. Something for everybody. Easy-to-read graphics and other editorial helps.

Thank you

Just what I wanted.

more songs! great book.

I’ve been playing the violin for 14 years. And this book is perfect for sight reading. Plus some of the songs have a bit of a challenge to them so it might take you a week or so to get the full hang of the piece. You should definitely have this book in your collection at home!
