Customer Reviews

One of my favorite things here was how it had details the anime left out , most notably world building that would become important much later onFantastic

People die.

In the feudal era, one man could not idly await the verdict of fate. Carrying only armor, a sword, and amazing skill, Gatsu (Guts) waves a defying hand to the forces that would threaten his freedom and his life. Issue #10: Guts has come back to Casca and the rest of the greatly depleted Band of the Hawk. They launch a rescue effort to save Griffith. On their descent to the cavernous dungeon, a historical tale of the dungeon, and Midland's, origin, seems to reveal the origin of the Godhand and Skull Knight. Upon successfully surviving the assault of the castle guard, however, the small rescue party await a far deadlier surprise. What horrors await those who defy the Bakiraka? Have the rescue party stepped into their own doom?

Great series

Another really great issue. The eclipse is coming to Midland and the demons are approaching in it's wake. Poor Griffith.
