The viola part is almost non-existent...just very boring half notes most of which are simply open strings.

This is a great book with arrangements of very famous classical pieces for violin and viola. Some of the viola parts are open string quarter notes for the majority of the piece though, with a more complicated violin part. Some of the viola parts are decent though, but it's been working great for my students who have been playing 2-3 years.

These are EXTREMELY simple. The viola part is all whole or half notes.

The songs have the finger numbers, which make it a lot easier.

Love performing a couple pieces from this book for a school performance with a friend! We were really good and I really like it! Thank you

The music is fun pieces that are easy to play. The binding makes it hard to stand by its own on a stand. Viola parts have very little of the the melodic line, but otherwise a good duet book

Not balanced for a DUET. The viola parts are very simplistic. I would call this more of a solo with an accompany than a duet. Very disappointed that this will not do for two students to be equally performing.
