Synopsis

Moving to the United States can be an exciting prospect filled with possibilities, but it can also be an overwhelming task weighed down with confusing red tape, logistics, and paperwork. Not to mention the challenges of navigating a different culture and social system once you arrive. ItÃ¢â ¬â„¢s hard to know where to begin. The good news is, whether youÃ¢â ¬â„¢re still in the preparation phase, or youÃ¢â ¬â„¢ve already relocated, this guide is your new best friend! An immigration attorney and a certified public accountant have teamed up to provide the most commonly needed information based on their extensive work with families and businesses relocating to the United States. Having answered thousands of questions about immigration law, taxation, and general life, their guide serves the actual needs of real people. And you donÃ¢â ¬â„¢t have to start on page one. Simply scan the table of contents or index to find the relevant keyword or topic, and flip to the corresponding page to get your answers right away. Their straightforward, easy-to-understand explanations are designed to help you navigate US systems and culture, so you can make the best decisions possible for you and your loved ones. Get started on your new American life today!
