Synopsis

Venice is a city like no other on earth with its canals, fabulous architecture, and fabled history. In this collection of remarkable photographs, Venice is revealed anew, through portraits that reveal its story through the ages: from Gothic and Renaissance days to the Neoclassical and Romantic eras. The book features not only the great landmarks around and beyond Piazza San Marco, but also everyday scenes discovered in alleyways and narrow canals. Capturing striking vistas and scenes both familiar and little-known, and with a text that provides a fresh and approachable introduction to the history of the city, this book will be treasured by all those who love, or dream about, the magical city of Venice.

WALL STREET JOURNAL 'an invaluable tour guide in the text that accompanies the photographs.'

Matteo Varia is a writer on Italian themes and the author of Latium: An Emotion (2004). He has also worked as a translator. Livio Bourbon's photographs on Italy have been featured in many books, including recent volumes on Turin and Liguria.

This book is a beautiful taste of a magnificent romantic city. The photos show perfectly the Grand Canal, the small canals, houses and little streets that surround St. Mark's Square. St. Marks' itself is brought to life in wonderful detail. The text is well written and brings the history of this fabulous place alive. If you are looking for a book to inspire your interest in visiting Venice, or you want a vivid reminder of your visit, as I did, then this is the book for you.

VENICE IS SUCH A UNIQUE CITY. THIS BOOK WAS A LIBRARY COPY WITH A WORN TRANSPARENT COVER THAT IWILL TAKE OFF, BUT IT IS AN OUTSTANDING VALUE!!

Venice: City Of Art with creative and vividly visual photography from Livio Bourbon and enhanced with writings by Matteo Varia is an artistic and inspiring introduction of one of Italy's truly beautiful and historic cities. Engaging its readers with 128 pages of endlessly amazing and intriguing visual poetry, Venice: City Of Art is a timeless contribution to the classically enriching world of Venice, Italy. Venice: City Of Art is very highly recommended, especially to anyone with any interest in Venice for its eccentric architecture, artistic heritage, and cultural legacy.
