Darwin Porter and Danforth Prince (chapters 1Ã¢â ¬â œ7 and 12Ã¢â ¬â œ21) have produced numerous titles for FrommerÃ¢â ¬â„¢s. Porter wrote the first ever FrommerÃ¢â ¬â„¢s guide to Scandinavia, and has been covering the destination ever since. He is also the coauthor of FrommerÃ¢â ¬â„¢s Norway, FrommerÃ¢â ¬â„¢s Denmark, and FrommerÃ¢â ¬â„¢s Sweden.

Prince, formerly of the Paris bureau of The New York Times, has been a frequent traveler and researcher to Scandinavia since 1980. His byline has appeared on four different guides to the Scandinavian countries, including Finland. Born in New York City and raised in Westchester County, Roger Norum (chapters 1, 8Ã¢â ¬â œ11, and 21 [www.rogernorum.com]) has studied literature and taught creative writing in Norway. He writes and photographs features on travel and food for a number of European magazines, including Departures, Wanderlust, and Olive. In 2010, he was awarded the silver prize for Travel Writer of the Year by the British Guild of Travel Writers. Roger currently divides his time between Oxford, England, and Kathmandu, Nepal, where he is finishing up research for his doctoral degree in social anthropology

We found this useful, but a lot of details were missing and had to be tracked down by hand on the internet. Boat, train and bus tours were recommended, but no details at all. Hotel and restaurant lists were useful.

This is an excellent guidebook. It is user-friendly and provides important details. Excellent resource for restaurants and lodging. This book took us to places that would not have been on our itinerary. We highly recommend this Scandinavian travel resource.

very interesting

Concise, informative and well organized. What a travel guide should be. I will definitely enjoy my upcoming trip more. Thanks.

I am on a tour of Denmark, Norway, Sweden and Helsinki and so far this book has guided me well.

There isn’t a great deal of information. I could have gone on line to websites and gotten the same info. It’s just a heavy book, which is not convenient for travel.

Delivers as promised. This is to prevent the purchase before that will be broken, attentive seller gave a small gift, in short, you can be assured of the quality of products to buy. great value for the buck So these are not what I was expecting...but I love them!! without any quality problems Superior quality and easy to transfer

Was looking for a recent book on travel in Scandinavia. There were none in bookstores but this one is it.
