Synopsis

If you can see them, youÃ¢â ¬â„¢re already dead. If you can hear them, youÃ¢â ¬â„¢re not far from it. If you can smell them, like the forest they live in, avoid danger at all conceivable costs.Because theyÃ¢â ¬â„¢re the monsters in the shadows of Harvey HillÃ¢â ¬â„¢s forests, and their king needs his queen. Charlotte and her burning red hair is a sight to behold. Though every bit as feisty as her sharp green eyes, but sheÃ¢â ¬â„¢s weary of the beasts that roam at nightÃ¢â ¬Â¦ of werewolves and unspoken beasts that threaten to abduct you, never to be seen again. After all, here in HarveyÃ¢â ¬â„¢s Hill, when the clock strikes ten, you best be inside, praying to the moon that the monsters pretend youÃ¢â ¬â„¢re not there.Yet, speeding down a highway late one night, she makes a graveÃ¢â ¬â •nay, fatalÃ¢â ¬â •mistake.Gabe saw those same smoldering embers that same night. Bloody and limp yet scathingly beautiful, her small but defiant voice burns through his soul. He reaches out, aching to claim her, but she knows her runes against beasts like him, and she isnÃ¢â ¬â„¢t going down without a goddamn fight. But the King of Beasts always gets what he wants, and so he drags her away to be his foreverÃ¢â ¬Â¦ or so he thought.Just when love and passion take its course, odd things starts happening. Sinister things are in the works. And when Charlotte and Gabe find their bond broken, everything falls apartÃ¢â ¬Â¦ maybe even their sanity.What are the secrets of this strange, strange town? When death is hot on her heels, will Charlotte escape? Will the king ever get to claim his queen?Be captivated by this dark tale of undying love that defies the paranormal in Jamiee LynneÃ¢â ¬â„¢s new book, King of Beasts.But be warned: the insane plot twists and spine-tingling thrill might just make you a bit mentally unstableÃ¢â ¬â •temporarily, that is. King of the beasts. Wooo hoo. Love this story The characters in the story plot

Loved this story can’t wait for the next one can’t wait for Gabe and Charlotte to reunite. Wished it was longer and didnt require a second book.

This really was a good book. Normally I would have given it at least a 4 maybe a 5 star rating. However, my only problem with this is the author keeps hording chapters to get you to sign up to her page. This is the second book of hers I have read and this is the second time this has popped up. I already signed up, so I could read the epilogue for the first book I read, and now I can’t read the ones for this one. I get it, she wants people to keep reading her stuff. I was hoping that her manipulation would only be on the one book, seeing as she is talented and I seriously love her writing style I think she is a truly gifted writer, but apparently she doesn’t give herself enough credit and will continue keeping chapters and making me frantically try to dance to her little tune. So this is the last book I will read by her unfortunately. It was great, if you read this you will enjoy it, but remember that you won’t get to find out anymore unless you want to dance a little gig and hope you can get your fix.

This book was so good and had a great storyline. It was different and refreshing read that is something you will remember. Well done. I want more please please please

This book has the workings of being a great read, but it’s lacking some filler to help present a better picture of what is happening. I felt that it would jump from one thought to another and leave something unfinished. There would be an action scene with no lead in and it gave the sense of being incomplete.

I actually really enjoyed the story. Loved it actually.I did notice some errors throughout the story. I had to reread the previous paragraph and the following to make sure I understood what the author was trying to say. Where it should refer to ’she’ it would say ’he’ instead. If I wasn’t so into the story, I might not have caught it. Being that the story was good, I was absorbed into it that those little details did not slip my noticing.From what I could tell, the story was suppose to be split into Charlotte and Gabriel’s point of views. Slight problem was that sometimes other characters POV were mixed and scattered throughout one character’s POV that it kind of threw me for a loop. It would take me a second to realize it was a different person’s POV.Other than that it was a great story. I liked that the ending was sort of unexpected. I know I was expecting there to be a different solution to the problem and a very different outcome. Regardless, it was great! I do, however, hope there is to be a second book to help us find peace with the ending. I grew to love these characters. I know I want to know where this Miss Jane and our beloved Charlotte end up.

This is NOT your typical werewolf shifter romance. It starts as dark and foreboding as a cultish seedy novel, but rapidly grabs your attention and ensnare s the reader with twisting, engrossing plots. The writer masterfully spins a tale of deceit, betrayal, culture clashes, and devotion that just keeps getting better and better the more you are pulled into it.It starts off rather slowly but quickly becomes a book that you can NOT MISS!! I can’t wait for the next book she writes, the end was a bit of a "OMG!! That can’t be the end!!!" Please, Jamiee, you can’t leave me hanging!! I can’t remember the last time I have been so much on pins waiting for the next book!!
