great to have a complete script with all the stage direction straight from Gilbert and Sullivan, as well as modern directions, and a description of the complicated story

This score was as good as new. Just a few light pencil marks from previous user, I am very pleased.

Both Sullivan and Gilbert considered this their finest Savoy work. They were right. We'll be producing this in CT for two performances only on Oct. 19 and 20. Full info at ctgands.org.

As a member of a local theatre group (the Pittsburgh Savoyards), it's good to know that I can count on to get the scores that I need for our twice yearly Gilbert & Sullivan productions.
