Praise for HAVE YOU SEEN MY DUCK? (by Janet A. Holmes and illustrated by Jonathan Bentley)"High on the cuteness scale, this will be a welcome addition to preschool collections." --SCHOOL LIBRARY JOURNAL"Bentley's charming watercolors present the epitome of a little boy (bare feet and all) and his well-loved stuffy." --KIRKUS REVIEWS"Both the narrative and the illustrations are particularly successful at communicating the boy's feelings .... The pencil-and-watercolor illustrations have a casual, sketchy informality, with loose pencil lines adding detail and a sense of simplicity; the art reinforces the child-centeredness of the tale by never showing any adult faces." --THE BULLETIN OF THE CENTER FOR CHILDREN'S BOOKS

Excellent imaginative appealing book

Lovely, loopy story with a beautiful demonstration of good (and also single) parenting. If you ignore that the tree house built would have taken many days to complete and cost a fortune, the daddy in this story gives his daughter freedom, without curtailing her adventures because of his fears, while also then happily welcoming her back inside with open arms when she suddenly wants support, free of any teasing.Enjoy the whimsical illustrations and trust the well-written story.
