Customer Reviews

Not just for kids! I bought this for my own deepening of the Shabbat, and since it explains the structure in easy to understand words, I've really been helped by it. The drawings are also very nice. Good for kids and beginner adults.

This is excellent for those new to celebrating Shabbat. The bread prayer is to be before the wine. So just reverse those two. That's the only issue with this, but it's still a 5 Star.

A good book for little children. The prayers and songs are very basic. The illustrations are geared towards children and family. The book starts with Welcoming Shabbat, prayer for lighting candles and goes through the Havdalah ceremony for Saturday night. I like the book, but it is very very basic. The book would be good for young children. It is a fun way to incorporate Shabbat into their lives without being overwhelming.Has Hebrew, English, and Transliteration

I really liked the books simple format.

Very good book with simple directions in learning the ceremony that accompanies Shabbath. Seller got the book to me in record time.
